An individual, 25, born and raised in New Zealand, who identified in his late teens an opportunity ... an opportunity to combine his musical and performance talents in order to become recognised internationally as a great entertainer.

The motivation has, and always will be, to “make people feel good”.

~ crossover album “A New World” achieved double platinum status in NZ

~ upon release in the UK, it debuted at Number 1, making him

The Youngest Tenor In Musical History To Top The Classical Charts

Recent appearances include performances at ...

~ The Royal Albert Hall ~ Wembley Stadium ~ The Henley Festival

“a once in a generation talent ... he is head and shoulders above any other international artist around at present”

- Dickon Stainer - Managing Director of Universal Classics and Jazz UK
